
Five ways to experience Alaska.
From shorter escapes to deeper exploration, there's an itinerary to match every Sailor.
Your Alaska season at a glance:
18 sailings • 5 itineraries • 7–12 night voyages
2 glacier cruising days • Seattle & Vancouver
May–September 2028 • Aboard Brilliant Lady
Virgin VOYAGES
VOYAGEstore

One ship. Two departure cities. Five distinct itineraries.

Alaska: Hubbard, Inside Passage & Juneau

Sailing 1 May 2028 • 10 nights sailing

Vancouver • Juneau • Skagway • Sitka • Hubbard Glacier Cruising • Icy Strait Point • Ketchikan • Victoria • Seattle

Alaska: Inside Passage & Glacial Fjords

Sailing 11 May 2028 • 7 nights sailing

Seattle • Ketchikan • Sitka • Endicott Arm & Dawes Glacier (Cruising) • Victoria • Seattle

Alaska: Hubbard, Inside Passage & Juneau

Sailing 13 July 2028 • 12 nights sailing

Seattle • Ketchikan • Sitka • Icy Strait Point • Hubbard Glacier Cruising • Haines • Juneau • Skagway • Victoria • Seattle

Alaska: Hubbard Glacier & Inside Passage

Sailing 25 July 2028 • 9 nights sailing

Seattle • Sitka • Hubbard Glacier Cruising • Haines • Icy Strait Point • Ketchikan • Victoria • Seattle

Alaska: Seattle to Vancouver

Sailing 7 September 2028 • 7 nights sailing

Seattle • Ketchikan • Sitka • Endicott Arm & Dawes Glacier (Cruising) • Victoria • Vancouver

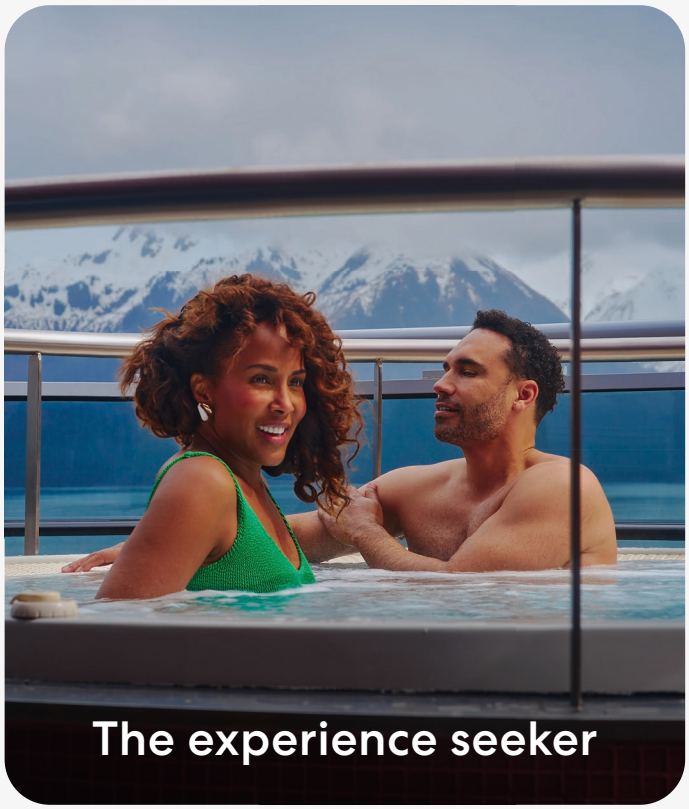

Why Alaska with Virgin Voyages?

Same incredible Alaska. An entirely different way to experience it.

	Virgin Voyages	Other Cruise Lines
Price Point	Adults-only at a mainstream price. An exclusively adult Alaska voyage, with Virgin Voyages' own onboard experience, priced without the luxury-line premium.	Adults-only usually means luxury.
Port Stories	Chosen with a purpose. Sitka's sea otters and Russian-American history. Haines' eagles and Tlingit culture. Ketchikan's totem poles. Victoria's gardens and afternoon tea to close.	Generic itineraries.
Glacier Days	Two glacier days. Both memorable. Hubbard Glacier, North America's most active tidewater glacier, plus Endicott Arm & Dawes Glacier through a narrow tidewater fjord. Both are full scenic days.	A shared glacier checklist. Glacier viewing is standard across Alaska. What differs is who is on board and what the ship is like after the glacier.
Who's on Board	Adults-only. Always. Every sailing, 18+ only. Glacier mornings, grown-up evenings, and no kids' clubs competing for the pool deck.	Families & multigenerational. Mainstream Alaska lines market to families, with kids' clubs and family programming. Adults-only space is usually a single solarium deck, not the whole ship.
What's Included	$1,000+ in value. Always. Specialty dining, WiFi, soda & water, and more. No surprises, so the budget goes to shore things.	Most mainstream cruise lines use an add-on model for drinks, WiFi and specialty dining.
Itinerary Choice	Five destination-led itineraries. 7, 9, 10 and 12 nights from Seattle and Vancouver, named for what Sailors will remember. The Inside Passage carries every sailing from port to port.	Length-and-region labels. "7-Day Alaska Cruise" describes the calendar, not the experience.
Onboard Energy	Experience-driven Sailors. DJ sets, Scarlet Night and onboard activations. The ship comes alive once the glacier day is done.	Big-ship amenities. Large-ship lines lean on attractions like laser tag and race tracks, built to entertain every age.
Alaska Credibility	Proven on Brilliant Lady. Alaska is already Virgin Voyages' best-performing region. The 2028 itineraries are new; the product is established.	50 years of 'Alaska experts.' Long-established cruise lines lean on decades of Alaska heritage. Heritage is their story; the onboard experience is ours.

Will it suit your Sailor?

Alaska is for the curious, the adventurous and those who want more from their holiday.

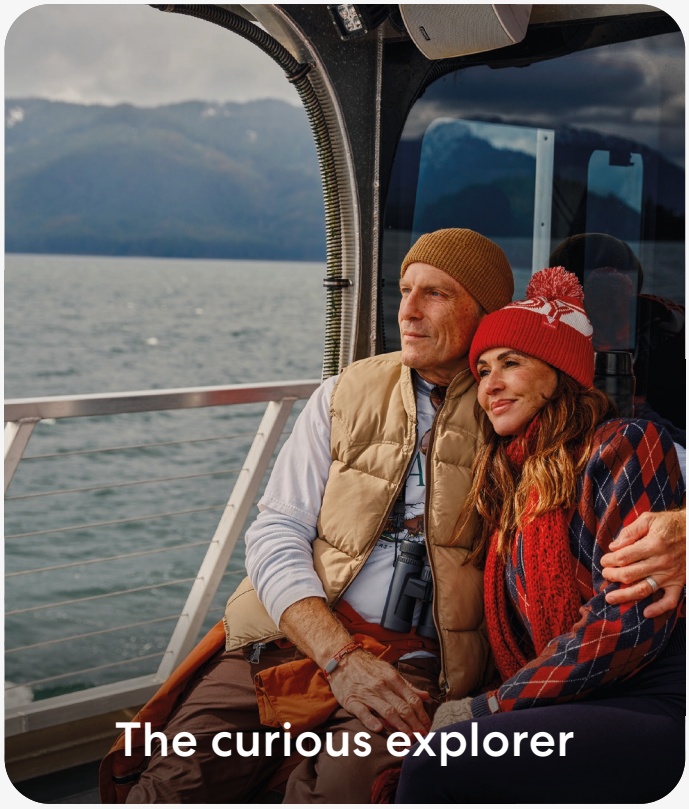

The experience seeker

Wants incredible scenery, meaningful destinations and memories that last long after the holiday.

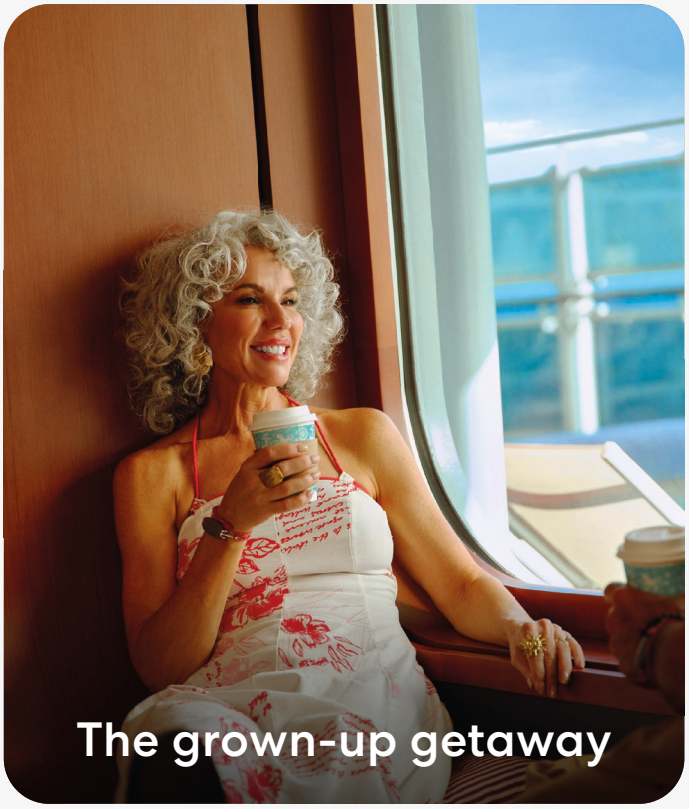

The social butterfly

Loves great food, entertainment, DJ sets and a lively atmosphere without a family-focused ship.

The curious explorer

Wants to discover local culture, wildlife, history and landscapes, rather than simply tick off ports.

The grown-up getaway

Wants an adults-only holiday with premium touches, excellent dining and no children's clubs or family-focused distractions.